Event and Meeting Description

Tuesday, May 29

1. Introductory meeting and presentations in hotel conference room
R Street's Dr. Carrie Wade gave introductory presentations on the nature of addiction and basic principles of harm reduction, and the group talked about housekeeping matters and the week's activities.
2. Meeting with NHS England Addictions Clinical Academic Group, Lambeth Drug and Alcohol Treatment Consortium, Lorraine Hewitt House
The delegation met with several practitioners and clinical experts at a drug and alcohol treatment service in Brixton (Dr. Emily Finch, Clinical Director of Addictions Clinical Academic Group; Dr. Michael Kelleher, Addictions Specialist and Clinical Lead for Lambeth Addictions; and Dr. Luke Mitcheson, Head of Psychology for Addictions Clinical Academic Group.). The practitioners gave presentations on the nature of Britain's drug problem and the role of harm reduction in treatment. They also discussed the Lambeth injectable heroin clinical trial and best clinical practices in addiction. The delegation toured the onsite harm reduction clinic.
3. Dinner at the Grenedier
The delegation ate dinner at a British pub and had time to network with one another and discuss the day's educational material.

Wednesday, May 30

1. Meetings with Harm Reduction International
The delegation heard from several experts at Harm Reduction International, the leading non-governmental organization working to promote harm reduction. Head of advocacy for HRI Fionnuala Murphy gave a presentation on the "10 by 20" campaign, an initiative to have governments redirect 10% of the resources currently spent on ineffective punitive responses to drugs and invest it in harm reduction by 2020. The delegation also discussed the promise and potential limitations of harm reduction in a global context.
2. Meetings with DrugScience
The delegation met with David Nutt, founder of DrugScience and several of his colleagues. DrugScience is an independent, science-led nonprofit on drugs research, which brings together leading drugs experts to carry out original research into drug harms and effects. Discussions focused on scientific analysis surrounding relative risks of various drugs, appropriate regulation of drugs, drug testing and the need for more scientific research on drugs.
3. Reception at the House of Lords

United States Senate

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

May 10, 2018

Alison Toal
Office of Senator Cory Gardner
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Ms. Toal:

This responds to your recent correspondence concerning an invitation you received to travel on the R Street Congressional Delegation on Harm Reduction to London, England, from May 28 to June 2, 2018, sponsored by the R Street Institute (R Street). R Street certified to the Select Committee on Ethics (the Committee) that it will pay the *necessary expenses*¹ related to the travel and that it is neither a lobbyist, nor lobbying firm, nor agent of a foreign principal, and it is not otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government. R Street has also certified that it does not retain or employ a registered lobbyist or agent of a foreign principal and that no registered lobbyist will accompany you at any point throughout your trip.²

Based on information and materials available to the Committee, and assuming the actual travel and travel-related expenses conform to the information and materials you provided, it appears that the proposed payment or reimbursement of necessary expenses for this trip may be accepted under relevant Senate Rules and the Committee's Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel, so long as at the time of the payment or reimbursement, R Street is neither a registered lobbyist nor lobbying firm under the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, nor an agent of a foreign principal under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (and is not otherwise acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government), and provided the travel and all required documents are disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate in accordance with the provisions of Senate Rules 34 and 35.

Under Senate Rule 35, Senate staff must receive advance authorization signed by the Member or officer under whose direct supervision the individual works in order to accept payment or reimbursement for necessary expenses related to fact-finding travel. Further, such authorization and expenses must be disclosed to the Secretary of the Senate by filing the completed Employee Pre-Travel Authorization and the Employee Post-Travel Disclosure of Travel Expenses (Form RE-1 and Form RE-2), along with a copy of the Private Sponsor Travel

¹ The term "necessary expenses" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 8.

² The term "any point throughout your trip" has a specific definition. See Select Committee on Ethics' Regulations and Guidelines for Privately-Sponsored Travel – Glossary of Terms at 2.

Certification Form, and all relevant attachments (e.g., the private sponsor's invitation and itinerary) within 30 days of the conclusion of Privately-Sponsored Travel.

The Committee has determined that § 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations that are classified as private foundations, as opposed to public charities, may not pay for transportation from the United States to a foreign country.³ However, R Street represented to the Committee that it is a § 501(c)(3) public charity, as opposed to a private foundation, pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.⁴

Please be advised that the United States Constitution prohibits the acceptance of any gift, including a meal, from a foreign government without the consent of Congress. In the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), Congress consented to the acceptance by federal government officials of: (1) gifts of minimal value and (2) travel or the expenses for travel taking place entirely outside the United States, from a foreign government (which includes those acting as a representative or agent of a foreign government).⁵ The Senate has defined minimal value as $100 or less. Further, pursuant to FGDA, there are certain reporting and procedural requirements that are imposed upon Members, officers, and employees who accept gifts from a foreign government. Please review the Committee's "Dear Colleague" letter of January 16, 2018, setting forth the items to be included in filing that report.

Finally, Senate Rule 34 requires a reporting individual,⁶ on his or her Financial Disclosure Report, to make an annual disclosure of the receipt of payments or reimbursements under Senate Rule 35 from a private sponsor for officially-related travel expenses where, in the aggregate, travel expenses exceed $390 from that sponsor during a calendar year. However, if a Member, officer, or employee properly reports the receipt of necessary expenses for such travel to the Secretary of the Senate within 30 days of the travel, as discussed above, the travel expenses need not be disclosed a second time on their Financial Disclosure Report.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Committee.

Sincerely,

Deborah Sue Mayer
Chief Counsel and Staff Director

Enclosure: Travel Checklist

³ See 26 U.S.C. § 4941 et seq. Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code broadly defines non-profit, charitable, tax-exempt organizations. These § 501(c)(3) organizations are then further defined or designated as "public charities" and "private foundations."

⁴ 26 U.S.C. § 501(c)(3).

⁵ 5 U.S.C. § 7342.

⁶ A reporting individual is someone whose salary equals or exceeds 120% of the basic rate of pay for GS-15 ($126,148 for CY 2018) or is a political fund designee and is required to file Financial Disclosure Reports.

Subject: Harm Reduction Staffdel in London
Attachments: UK staffdel memo + itinerary.pdf

Dear Alison,

I'm a federal affairs manager at the R Street Institute, a DC-based think tank. We're planning an educational visit for a select group of bipartisan Congressional staffers to go the United Kingdom to learn about harm reduction strategies in public health, and we would like to cordially invite you to be part of our delegation.

The trip will take place in London from Tuesday, May 29 through Saturday, June 2, 2018. The goal is to educate U.S. policymakers on harm-reduction philosophy and programs as a strategy to reduce the negative consequences associated with risk behaviors and addiction, with a special emphasis on opioids and tobacco use. As such, we will be meeting with British public health providers, clinical experts and civil servants to discuss the UK's unique regulatory approach. The memo attached gives detailed information on the goals of the trip, including the full itinerary.

Please let us know as soon as possible if you're interested, and we'll send you the forms to get you started on next steps with Ethics. Forms are due no later than next Friday April 27, but we appreciate you telling us as soon as possible if you'd like to attend to help with planning purposes.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out via email or by phone at 919-830-3140. We'd also be happy to come by your office if you'd like to discuss the trip in person.

We hope you will be able to join us and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,
Caroline

R Street Congressional Delegation on Harm Reduction
London, United Kingdom
May 28-June 2, 2018

The R Street Institute is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, public policy research organization dedicated to promoting free markets and limited, effective government. R Street's harm-reduction program aims for integrated harm reduction with tobacco, opioid and other drug use as central elements. We believe that harm reduction approaches can serve as a compliment to "abstinence-only" approaches to minimize the deadly consequences of drug use.

Our immediate and long-term goals for this educational trip are to introduce harm-reduction concepts to federal policymakers, including those familiar with some forms of harm reduction and those who have no experience with harm-reduction philosophies or programs; and to meet with local experts and evaluate successes and potentials in harm reduction. Toward that end, we have invited public health and clinical experts in both opioid and tobacco harm reduction to meet with the delegation and discuss programs and policies that are most successful in promoting public health.

Carrie Wade has previously worked as an addiction researcher at the University of Minnesota and The Scripps Research Institute in La Jolla, California. Her research has focused largely on the intersection of prescription opioid abuse and chronic pain in animal models of opioid self-administration.

Carrie's scientific background in the biological mechanisms of opioid addiction led to her interest in how public-health initiatives can prevent the incidence of addiction and reduce the negative societal and personal consequences that result from drug addiction. Her internship with the Baltimore Student Harm Reduction Coalition Overdose Education and Naloxone Distribution program solidified her goal to promote rational and efficient drug policies. Since joining the R Street Institute, Carrie has participated in numerous harm-reduction conferences, including the National Harm Reduction Conference, the U.S. E-Cigarette Summit, the Global Forum on Nicotine, the Global Tobacco and Nicotine Forum, Harm Reduction International, the U.S. Conference on AIDS, the Society for Neuroscience, the American Pain Society, and the Winter Conference on Brain Research.

Education: Bachelor's in Neuroscience, University of Minnesota; Master's in Public Health, Johns Hopkins University; PhD in Pharmacology, University of Minnesota.
